

Winter

2015/2016

Career Momentum

ACDC is Coming to Town!

Career Development &
Transition Strategies

Employment Information
for Not for Profit Employers

Resources to Help You
Boost Your Career Through
Volunteering

Celebrating Alberta's Non-Profit & Voluntary Sector

Profile: Monique Trudel

Message from CDAA Chair:

Make the Most of Your Volunteer Experience

by Dorothy Ritz

Chair, Board of Directors, Career Development Association of Alberta

This issue of Career Momentum focuses on volunteerism. Throughout my career I have had many opportunities to be a volunteer and to lead volunteers.

There are a multitude of benefits to volunteering. Our ...

read more

CDAA Executive Director Update:

Celebrating Volunteerism

by Paula Wischoff Yerama, BMgt, CCDP, RRP, RVP

Executive Director, Career Development Association of Alberta

As Career Development Practitioners we are firmly rooted in the helping profession and as helpers we often have a difficult time saying no. We want to help others. We want to make a difference. We want to see others succeed. Volunteering and mentoring ...

read more

ACDC is Coming to Town!

Tracey Campbell | CDAA Marketing & Communications Committee Chair & Paula Wischoff Yerama | Executive Director, Career Development Association of Alberta

The Career Development Association of Alberta (ACDC) is excited to host the third annual Alberta Career Development Conference, ACDC 2016. The 2016 conference theme, Commit to Excellence, is the third component of CDAA's moto ...

read more

CDAA Fall Multi-Chapter Event:

Career Development and Transition Strategies: A Time Between Dreams

by Arlayna Alcock
Membership and Chapter Development Committee (MCDC) Chair

The CDAA successfully hosted the provincial Multi-Chapter Event this year featuring Carol Vecchio from Seattle, Washington. Carol Vecchio is a prominent US career development professional who is also the founder of Centerpoint Institute for Life and Career ...

read more

Value of Volunteerism for the CDAA

by Nicole Mackenzie

My name is Nicole Mackenzie and I hope you will join me in celebrating the value of volunteerism. I am one of those keepers types. In elementary school when the teacher asked for a volunteer for something I was usually one of the first ...

read more

Volunteering - Does it help my career development?

by Cheryl Petruk

B.Mgt, CHRP, MBA Candidate

People typically volunteer for non-profit and not for profit organizations because of personal reasons. Perhaps it is to help an organization that is in need of a specific competency or skill set that the individual possesses or because the individual ...

read more

Employment Information for Not for Profit Employers

Information provided by Thelma Ketler, Communications Director
Edmonton Chamber of Voluntary Organizations

Where do I find information on employment standards?
How do I deal with employee remittances?
Do I need insurance?
What should I do if a dispute arises? ...

read more

Resources to Help You Boost Your Career Through Volunteering

by Government of Alberta

Volunteering not only helps charitable organizations, it can also provide career benefits for the volunteers. Volunteering can help newcomers gain valuable experience, youth can explore career options and job seekers get the opportunity to gain ...

read more

Celebrating Alberta's Non-Profit & Voluntary Sector

From the Editor's Desk

Alberta is home to more than 24,800 non-profit organizations. Non-profit and voluntary organizations are defined as "self-governing organizations that exist to serve the public benefit, generate social capital but do not distribute private ...

read more

Profile of a Career Development Professional:

Monique Trudel

by Debbie Pratt,

CDAA Marketing & Communications Committee

Monique has been an active member of CDAA since 2005 and, within the theme of the winter issue on "Celebrating Volunteerism", is also an active volunteer of CDAA! Her story includes the themes of happenstance, multiple career ...

read more

Member Benefits ...

Volunteering

by Nayelli Perez,
CDAA Marketing & Communications Committee

Joining a professional association like the Career Development Association of Alberta (CDAA) is a great way to get connected with other Career Development Practitioners, to participate in professional development opportunities, and to ...

read more

Many Ways to Give

by Vicky Driver

It is evident that volunteerism and philanthropy is gaining momentum and recognition. There are many stories about amazing people who volunteer their time, share their resources, and develop social action programs. Some of the most ...

read more

CAREER CURRENTS

Compiled by Leita Blasetti,
CDAA Marketing & Communications Committee

HireUp helps employers achieve recruitment objectives by connecting them to youth-serving organizations who have effective employment readiness programs and provide post-employment supports to ensure youth ...

read more

Advertising and Promotions Policy

The CDAA's advertising and promotion policy provides both members and member organizations as well as non-members and non-member organizations with an opportunity to reach Alberta's current, connected, and committed Career Development ...

read more

CDAA Marketing & Communications Committee

The Career Momentum team would like to wish our readers all the best in the holiday season...

May 2016 be a year full of health, happiness and promise ...

read more

- New Members / New CCDPs -

New Members

Buk Arop
Adelaide Bekono
Sandra Braakman

read more

WELCOME

New CCDPs

Anna Marie McGuire
April McNeil
Angele Morrison

read more

CONGRATULATIONS

- Upcoming Events -

read more